ALLAN-A-DALE WINS AGAIN

Although yesterday was an off day at Washington Park and no stake races or handicaps were offered by the club, there was, nevertheless a large and enthusiastic gathering on hand. What the card lacked in quality was balanced by some keenly exciting contests, the finishes in the third, fourth and sixth races being of the hair raising order.

T. C. McDowell's handsome colt Allan-a-Dale made his second appearance at the track, and performed probably more impressively than when he beat Herodiade. There was a strong whisper out on Helen Print about some sensational workouts, but the big son of Halma fairly breezed away from her and won as he pleased. Just before turning into the stretch, Pentecost, who lay within two lengths of the winner, crossed his legs and went down in a heap, throwing Winkfield heavily. The jockey was not hurt and was able to ride out the rest of his mounts for the day.

Miss Bennett made her first appearance in a long time and was well liked by a number of shrewd horsemen. She had all her old time speed, but wobbled badly in the last eighth, allowing Isia to pass her easily and win hands down. Bullman gave Isia clever handling, dodging the early scorching and making his run at exactly the right time. The three-quarters was run in 1:13—a creditable performance.

George Arnold one of the best sprinters in the west, was thought to have things his own way in the third race, a dash of seven and one-half furlongs, but after being carried at a smacking clip by Yellow Tail for three-quarters, had just enough left to outgame Vulcan by a head in a clash from the sixteenth pole to the wire. Bullman's masterly finish saved him.

Jimenez, conceding weight to everything in the second race, had little trouble scoring his second victory of the week. Tom Embry accompanied him for three-quarters, when Bullman urged him slightly and he came away, winning easily by two lengths from Searcher, who outlasted the closing Omdurman a neck for the place.

Scotch Plaid, Leo Newell and Knightbanneret fought out the last race in a sensational tilt in the last sixteenth, finishing heads apart in the order named. Knightbanneret ran a strikingly improved race, and after trailing his field finished down the last quarter with a tremendous rush. He would have won in a stride or so more.

HARLEM INJUNCTION DISSOLVED.

Judge Stein yesterday afternoon dissolved the injunction against the Harlem race track on the ground that the cause set up by the complainants was not adequate and besides was unsupported by sufficient proof.

The court held that writs of injunction should not issue except in cases of extreme necessity, and no such necessity existed in this instance.

The bill, the Court said, showed no proof that the Sheriff was unable to enforce the law at the race track, and the injunction, therefore, should be dissolved.

The State at once took an appeal.

Judge Stein's decision will be received with more than general satisfaction by those interested in racing because of the local belief that the temporary injunction was procured by veiled but hostile foreign influences. This was charged in open court and strenuously denied and may not be true, but it is nevertheless thoroughly believed in by many.

THE LITTLEFIELD SALE.

The entire racing stable of C. Littlefield, Jr., with the exception of the three-year-old fillies, Sweet Lavender and Katherina, were placed on sale in the Fasig-Tipton Company paddocks at Sheepshead Bay Wednesday. There was a large crowd present and the bidding was fast and furious. The star of the sale was the three-year-old Water Color, by Watercress—Sabrina, whose performances of late have entitled him to rank as one of the leaders in the three-year-old division. His appearance in the ring was greeted with loud applause. Tom Walsh bid $10,000. It was raised quickly to $12,000 by Peter Labouisse and then Frank Clarke, the superintendent of the Sheepshead Bay track, raised it. He was bidding for William P. Thompson, well known as one of the owners of L'Alouette, Gibraltar, The Huguenot and other good ones, who is about to re-enter the racing game and wanted to start with Water Color.

Then Davy Johnson, the well-known plunger, stepped into the fray and it was between Johnson and Clark up to $21,000, when the latter quit. His place was instantly taken by Tom Welch and the two raised to $23,000, at which amount the colt was knocked down to Johnson. Several other purchases were made by Johnson and it is said that the horses were bought for William A. Clark, Jr., son of the well-known Senator of that name, who is about to go into racing. The two-year-old Gold Seeker brought out a duel between Joe Hayman and Sydney Paget, with the latter a winner by a bid of $12,500. The four-year-old gelding Water Cure which ran second to Alcedo in the Suburban Handicap was knocked down to Green B. Morris for $11,000. Prices and purchasers:

Winner—B. c. by Ben Strome—Maria D. Went to post at 2:40. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Man o' War ran well and was perfectly handled. Essene was going the fastest at the end. Illuminate, off poorly, closed a big gap and was carried wide on the stretch turn. Courtenay closed much ground and will probably win soon. Linora was pocketed in the last furlong and jumping on horses in front of her. Friar Tabor evidently wants mud to show at his best. It was a field of bad racers. Scratched—Fair Empire, 104; 26150 Wild Oats, 97; 26291 Merriment, 94. Overweights—Illuminate, 1 pound. Man o' War, show, 4 to 5. Essene, show, 7 to 10. Illuminate, show, 7 to 5. Friar Tabor, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Candlemas—Utility. Went to post at 3:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Wax Taper outclassed the field. He lay far out of the race for the first half and was not turned loose until in the last furlong where he forged to the front in a hard gallop. The Puritan was under a big pull for three-quarters and ran a noteworthy race. Dublin was outclassed. He is evidently far short of his two-year-old form. Handwork was very rank for the first three-quarters and displayed a brilliant burst of speed. He was short and will be heard from later on. Scratched—26236 Templeton, 96. Overweights—Handwork, 3 pounds. No show betting on first three.

26353 THIRD RACE—Last 5 1-2 Furlongs. (New Futurity Course.) 2-year-olds. Allowances. The June Stakes. $800 added.

26172	ALIBERT	122	2	1	1	1	4	4	4	Shaw	J Fleischmann

Winner—Ch. c. by Meddler—Pearl Thorn. Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Peninsula was best, steadily improving and is an exceptionally good stayer. Disadvantage was carried somewhat wide on the turn and that may have beaten her. Gay Boy, on the rail, ran his race. It was a hot fight between these three throughout, with the advantage in the strongest finisher. Alibert was a contender to the last furlong and suffered costly interference when pinched and compelled to pull up. Scratched—26269 Electress, 114. No show betting.

26354 FOURTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. $1,000 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

26294	CYRANO	4	111	3	4	4	4	4	4	Mitchell	M Murphy

Winner—B. c. by Albert—Bonnie Ola. Went to post at 4:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second the same. Herbert was best. He was very rank for the first seven-eighths and lost ground by bearing out on turns and was poorly handled throughout, but finished fast and strongly. All Gold hung on unusually well after forcing such a hot pace. Trigger ran well and might have won but for her failure to get an opening when making her effort in the stretch. She demonstrated high class form and is probably the best of the three-year-old fillies east. Carbuncle ran as if sore. The hard track and his last previous race probably had left ill effects. The same applies to Cyrano. Both horses are at their best on heavy tracks and both suffered from bad handling today. Scratched—25380 Rafaello, 126; (26232) Scurry, 97; 26272 Fairy Tale, 92; 26296 Alsike, 88. Herbert, show, out. All Gold, show, out. Trigger, show, 6 to 5. Carbuncle, show, out. Cyrano, show, out.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Advance sales of tickets and boxes for the Fourth of July races at Washington Park indicate that that day will witness another record-breaking crowd. Over half of the boxes have already been sold, and requests for more are coming in rapidly. It is said that this is the largest advance sale in the history of the track.

Woodford Clay's promising three-year-old colt Driscoll, by Sir Dixon—Merry Maid, died at Harlem Thursday from laryngitis. Driscoll ran third in both the Kentucky Derby and Clark Stakes and was considered more than useful.

J. W. D., Chicago. Boundless won the American Derby in 1893. High Tariff fell dead while running in the American Derby of 1891, won by Strathmeath.

Texas. The produce of Anna Gray in 1899 was a dead chestnut colt by Hanover. Holstein therefore has no two-year-old brother.

Mr. T. C. McDowell is reported to have refused an offer of $25,000 made by H. M. Tichenor for his grand colt Allan-a-Dale.

J. W. Hobbs, Detroit, Mich. Voter has not won at a greater distance than a mile.

The selling plater Innovator died at Newport last Sunday from an attack of colic.

Winner—Br. c. by Conrad—Too Sweet.

Went to post at 4:35. At post 21 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Sweet Tooth is in great form, made up much ground and finished strongly. Bedeck broke slowly and closed an immense gap, running wide on the turns and was best. Princeton Girl came from nowhere and ran a remarkable race. Malden was bumped at the start. Bounteous is a quitter.

Scratched—262352 Cervara, 108; 25998 Biff, 108; 26212 In Shot, 105; 26272 Wayward Boy, 104; 19812 Apple of My Eye, 102; 24946 East Kelston, 102; 25953 Thicket, 101; 26236 Ristrick, 101; 26272 San Luis, 100; 26171 Argonauta, 98; 26170 Ante Up, 95; The Laurel II, 96; 26170 Jils Greenwood, 91.

Winner—B. g. by Sir Dixon—Amy Davenport.

Went to post at 5:25. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Nones was poorly ridden and pulled out of contention when the field was only centering in the first part of the race, but made up the ground and won drawing away and was incomparably superior. Fatalist put up a fast and game race and is a useful colt. Knight of the Garter was right there throughout. Collegian and Seminole both displayed speed and staying powers. Belgrade lacked speed even in the first half.

Scratched—26344 Latson, 114.

$500 FORFEITED IF WE DID NOT GIVE THE ABOVE.

Anybody can pick winners once in a while. We pick them always. Last winter when all other handicappers hid themselves we were there and always delivered the goods. Horses racing at Washington Park are of a high class and most of the fields are so evenly matched that picking winners is like finding a needle in a hay stack unless you are on the inside. We have two men watching the morning workouts and seldom does anything come off unless we have word of it.

OUR CLIENTS WON $290 ON $10 BETS THE LAST THREE DAYS.

Today we Have Two Good Things. The Odds will be 4 to 1 or Better. Our track timer reports they CAN'T LOSE.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the number of its charts are copyrighted. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

NOTICE.

Bandrol was fouled grievously by Zoraide down the stretch. Palms was away badly and showed speed.

Went to post at 3:51. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Fonedra was well ridden, took the short route and fought it out gamely when it came to a drive.
